

The TOMORROW FUND for children with cancer

Rhode Island Hospital Campus . 593 Eddy Street . Providence, RI 02903-4947 401.444.8811

Our Mission

The Tomorrow Fund provides financial and emotional support to children with cancer, and their families, who are treated at Hasbro Children's Hospital. We work to increase public awareness of childhood cancer and we promote research to improve the care and well-being of children with cancer.

We can't say how kids with cancer will grow up... We just want to make sure they do!

You can make a difference in the life of children with cancer. Your donations are tax deductible.

What happens when your child gets cancer?

DISBELIEF – this can't be happening to my child

How can this be – It's not fair that my child is sick – we're good people – we don't deserve this. Your family life has just become a shambles as you try to go through the motions of everyday life. You know what the test results said but they have to be wrong. What did the doctor, nurse say? What are they going to do to my child? What do you mean "Chemo" – that just can't be right.....

Why is this happening to my child?

PANIC - What do we do now?

There are steps to take but there are no arrows pointing the way. Your family has questions, your child has questions and the answers are out of reach. You just feel numb. There is no control in what is happening to your child. How are we going to cope with all this by ourselves? What about my job? What about the expenses? What about the rest of the family? And then there is

What do we do now?

CONFUSION – Who can I talk to?

There just has to be someone with answers, someone who can explain what is happening. We can't spend our days running in circles with no end in sight. We need help to sort these things out for us – help to make sense of the disaster that has befallen our precious child;

..... Who can I talk to?

TREATMENT – Where do we go?

Where do we take our child for help? Is there a place just for kids with cancer in RI? What about the treatment schedule, doctors and nurses to meet with, medicines to give? Who are the doctors that I'm entrusting my child's life to? Will the nurses be there when I can't be because of my job or extended family needs?

..... Where do we go?

SUDDENLY IT HITS..... We are never ever ready when bad things happen, especially to our children.

The Tomorrow Fund is there to provide the monetary and emotional support that is needed when cancer happens to your child.

What does The Tomorrow Fund do when your Child gets cancer?

Juliann Tefft presents a check from her softball tournament fundraiser to Kathy Connolly, Development Director and Barbara Ducharme, Executive Director.

What can you do?

PARKING PASS

"They pay your parking! Every time a child with cancer comes for treatment at the hospital The Tomorrow Fund pays."

— Richard Campanella

IN HOUSE STIPENDS

"We are Tomorrow Fund parents and spend a great deal of time in the hospital with our 9 year old daughter as she receives treatment and medical care for Leukemia. Most days our family of 4 (we also have a 7 year old daughter) spend hours together at the hospital in order to keep our family life as normal as possible. The stipend that we are given helps us to share a meal as a family each day which makes the world of difference during a time of uncertainty. The meal stipend may seem like a small item but to our family it is a huge blessing."

With much gratitude,
Tom, Jenn, Georgia, and Maggie

TRAVEL STIPEND

"We have been a part of The Tomorrow Fund family since 2009 when my daughter was first diagnosed with cancer. They have been a tremendous support for our family. When my daughter relapsed in 2011 the support we received from The Tomorrow Fund was truly unbelievable. We had to travel to Chicago for relapse treatment. We were in Chicago for almost 3 months. My husband and I knew that we both had to be with our daughter which meant he would be out of work. Thankfully we had family at home taking care of our other two children so we could focus on our daughter's care. We learned shortly after deciding to go to Chicago that The Tomorrow Fund would provide us with a travel stipend for every day that we spent in Chicago. We were shocked but ever so thankful for this. We spent most of our time in the hospital and it was so nice to be able to get a nice dinner while we were there. It's amazing that something like a good cup of coffee or a nice meal can just make your day a little better even when dealing with such a horrible situation. Learning your child has cancer is one of the worst things you can hear but knowing that you have The Tomorrow Fund by your side makes it a little more bearable."

Assist with payment for utilities, mortgages, rents, insurance, co-pays for medicine, etc.

With much appreciation
The Wheeler family

CAMP DOTTY

Camp Dotty, a day camp for 4-7 year old children with cancer and their siblings, was created to provide a camp experience for young children while recognizing their individual needs as they deal with cancer. The camp helps to create a transition for those children not old enough to attend an overnight camp and to simply, but just as importantly, give parents a much needed break. Last year, for the 12th consecutive year, more than 30 children with cancer and their siblings had a respite from their usual hospital routine as they enjoyed a full week of crafts, games, field trips and summertime fun at Camp.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Each year The Tomorrow Fund presents 10 scholarships to Tomorrow Fund cancer survivors thanks to the generosity of Dino Germani, a dedicated Tomorrow Fund friend and donor. Dino created the scholarship program in 2003 to help defray the cost of attending college. Though Dino lost his battle with cancer in 2006, his generous bequest provided an endowment guaranteeing funding each year for the “Dino Germani College Scholarship” program.

2011 “Dino Germani Scholarship” recipients:

Lindsey Bailer	Jonathan Migliozi
Joseph Daigle	Sarid Mirabel
Xenia Fernandez	Micah Moskoff
David Lombardi	Asonion Tabulina
Kathleen Morin	Alexander Schwartz

COPING AND SUPPORT GROUPS FOR PARENT, TEENS, SIBLINGS AND BEREAVEMENT FAMILIES

Childhood cancer causes serious emotional stress and anxiety for patients, parents, siblings and extended family members. Emotional support is critical to help the sick child and the family as they face these tremendous strains. The Tomorrow Fund provides funding for:

- A Child Life Specialist in The Tomorrow Fund Clinic who plans, organizes and directs age-appropriate therapeutic play to alleviate anxiety and stress associated with illness and hospitalization.
- Additional psychotherapy, as needed, through the Rhode Island Hospital Department of Psychiatry.
- The pediatric oncology social workers help The Tomorrow Fund to process requests for financial and emotional assistance.
- A parent consultant consoles the caretaker who has a child with cancer and complements the social workers' expertise by sharing first-hand the experiences of what it is like to live with and care for a child with cancer.

The Tomorrow Fund Stroll

Tomorrow Fund kids Brandon Lavender and Matthew Bentley leading the stroll with Fran DiFiore, President of the Tomorrow Fund Board.

The 9th Annual Tomorrow Fund Stroll, held on Sunday, April 10, 2011, was an incredible success!! Close to 3,000 people filled the gazebo area at Garden City Center in Cranston to raise money for The Tomorrow Fund. Through walker pledges, corporate sponsors, a fantastic raffle and other donations, we raised over $100,000 for our programs to help children with cancer and their families.

2011 Fantasy Ball

The Tomorrow Fund's "A Night in RIO" was celebrated at our Annual Fantasy Ball, our largest and most critical fundraising event of the year. Friends, families and supporters all came together for a night of dining, dancing, celebration and fundraising.

Hosted by Honorary Chairs David & Judy Belhumeur, Co-Chairs Robert & Janine Calise and Steve Kass & Debra Morais, the event was a great success due to the generosity of corporate and individual partners donating sponsorships and auction merchandise. The silent auction was coordinated by auction chairs Heather Zinni and D' Ann Soullier.

We would like to thank the more than 40 sponsors and legions of volunteers whose support was invaluable to the success of our celebration.
